Journey times

China is a vast country and journey times between destinations can sometimes be long. Journey times are listed in the itinerary and are approximate.

Group size

There is a maximum of 25 people per group.

Electricity

The electricity supply in China is 220 volts, most hotels have a two pin round sockets so we recommend a travel adaptor set.

Language

Mandarin Chinese is the official language and it may help to learn a couple of phrases before you travel. There is a keen interest in English so you may find people keen to practice with you but it is more widely spoken in the cities.

Visa requirements

A Chinese Visa is required for all British passport holders and most other nationalities and MUST be obtained before your arrival in China. A full 10 year passport is required and must be valid for 6 months beyond your departure date from China, with at least two blank pages. We recommend processing your visa directly with 'CIBT' who will obtain all visas in person, and return your passport to you (with visa) by registered post. Contact them on www.cibtvisas.co.uk/virginholidays or 0207 963 3873.

Currency

In China the basic unit of currency is the Yuan. There is no limit to the amount of foreign currency you can bring into China although it must be declared at point of entry. Traveller's cheques may be difficult to change. There are plenty of banks and ATMs, but you see less once you head out of the cities, so make sure you have enough to cover your drinks and ad-hoc item bills. You may want to carry small amounts of local currency for tips and to buy souvenirs from vendors too! Please note: Not all smaller hotels and shops can accept credit cards.

Tipping

It is customary to tip in China. 10% is usual in hotel restaurants and a guide for drivers would be $3USD and tour guides $5USD each per guest per day.

What to pack

- Lightweight, cotton clothes. Smart casual is acceptable in hotels
- A light sweater or fleece for early mornings and evenings and air-conditioning can be cool in restaurants
- Comfortable, sturdy footwear
- Casual clothing and sandals for dinner and relaxing at your hotel
- Sun cream, sunglasses and hat
- Camera and/or video camera with spare batteries and memory cards
- Swimming attire for an occasional swim
- Binoculars
- Mosquito repellent and spray
- Handy wipes, antiseptic hand gel and bottled water where possible
- Low denominations of local currency – handy for ad-hoc tipping!

What to expect

A tour in China is an adventure where anything can happen. We recommend you are of a reasonable fitness level as touring often involves long walks and uneven surfaces, this tour may not be suitable for those who require special assistance. Our tours provide the opportunity to see some of the local crafts and industries of China that reflect Chinese culture. These visits form part of the tour and but you should not feel obliged to purchase anything unless you want to. In each city there will be no more than 1 shopping stop arranged.

Recommended vaccinations

We advise you to discuss your individual requirements for China with your GP at least 6-8 weeks prior to travel.
